

Access to Local Food

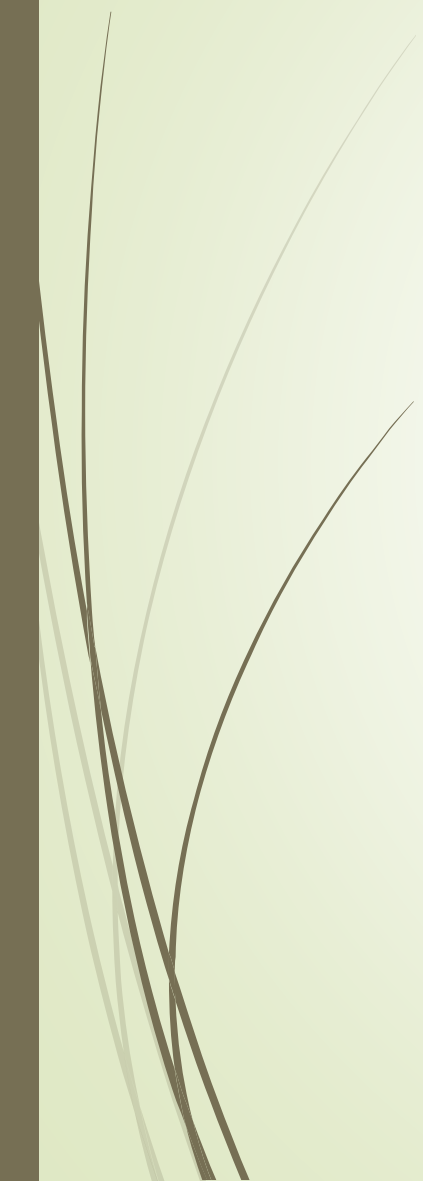

Homegrown
Frederick

FREDERICK COUNTY
MARYLAND
Office of Economic Development

Why Local?

- Supports Local Farmers
 - Builds community
 - Preserves Open Space
 - Investment in the future
-

Farmers markets

- $2.8 Million in Economic Impact
- 16 in Frederick County
- Each new market helps create 8 jobs
- Buy Local movement

Buy Local. Buy Fresh.

Community Supported Agriculture

- Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) in Frederick County is becoming increasingly popular thanks to the variety of fresh products grown right here.
- Dandelion and Rust Farm
- Chocolates and Tomatoes Farm
- Full Cellar Farm
- Good Soil Farm LLC
- House in the Woods Farm
- Moon Valley Farm
- Open Book Farm
- Pleasant Hill Produce
- Rendezvous Farm
- Serenity Grove Farm
- South Mountain Creamery
- Sycamore Spring Farm
- Thanksgiving Farms
- The Little Red Wagon Produce

Roadside Stands

- Orchards
- Produce
- Bakery
- Jams/Jellies
- Dairy Products
- Ice Cream
- Commercial Kitchen Space

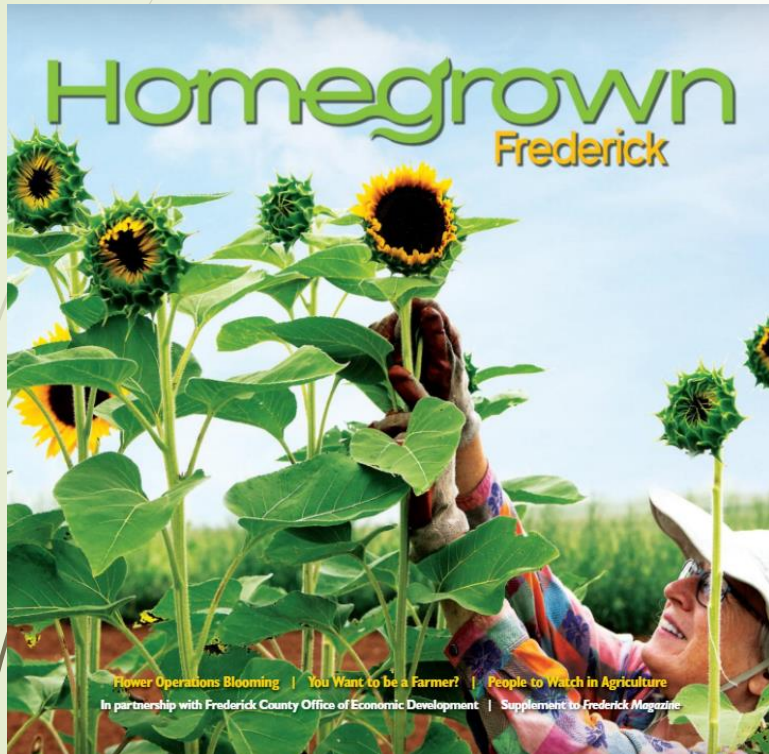

Pick Your Owns

- Fruits
- Veggies
- Pumpkins
- Flowers
- Sycamore Spring Farm
- Gaver Farm
- Mayne's Tree Farm
- Valley View Acres
- Valley Ho Farm
- Glade Link Farms
- Brookfield Pumpkins
- Catoctin Mountain Orchard

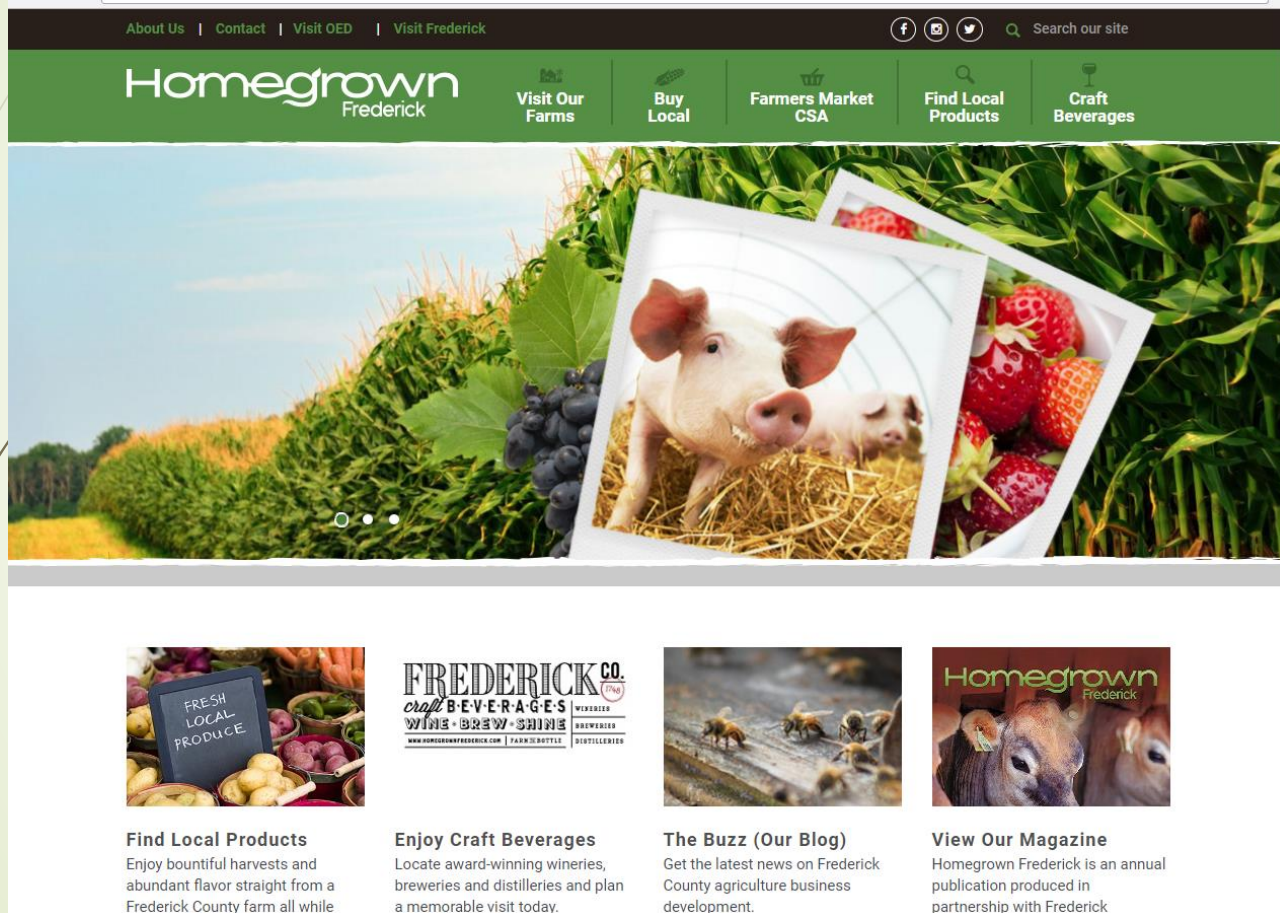

Homegrown Frederick

- Yearly publication-June issue of Frederick Magazine
- Free to all Frederick County Direct to consumer farmers
- Winery/Brewery/Distillery listings
- Farmers Markets/CSA

Homegrown Frederick

Contact Us

Katie Stevens, Associate Director of Agriculture Business Development
301.600.3037
kstevens1@frederickcountymd.gov

FREDERICK COUNTY
— MARYLAND —
Office of Economic Development

HomegrownFrederick.com
DiscoverFrederickMD.com

Homegrown
Frederick